

FASHION SHOW

in the Bessborough Restaurant

Following unprecedented demand, Ascot Racecourse is proud to announce the third Royal Ascot Fashion Show, bringing together top designers from around the world, the Bessborough catwalk is the ultimate showcase for the hottest male and female couture.

The 2008 Royal Ascot Fashion Show was a roll call of some of the world's greatest and most iconic designers including; Amanda Wakeley, Mathew Williamson, celebrity milliner Phillip Treacy and the high priestess of British fashion for over 40 years, Vivienne Westwood.

The Bessborough Restaurant is situated on the top floor of a bespoke three story marquee in the beautiful Old Paddock area of the racecourse. The restaurant with a private balcony offers superb views of the racing action and Windsor Great Park. The demand for this restaurant is extremely high and early booking is recommended to avoid disappointment.
